

ORDER OF DIVINE WORSHIP

February 19, 2017

Enter to Worship-Depart to Serve

WELCOME to Harkers Island UMC this Sunday Morning as We Worship and Celebrate Our LORD JESUS CHRIST!

First Friday will be leading the service today...

Today the Word comes from James 1:19-2:20
May I challenge you to take some time this day or this week read the book of James?

James starts with telling us about how to deal with
"Trials and Temptations"- "Faith and Works"
The middle parts tell us about
"Taming the Tongue" and "Two Kinds of Wisdom."
James ends with "Prayer of Faith" - "Patience in Suffering."

Who of us needs one of these topics spoken to us directly from God's Word... I expect every one of us will find a word from the Lord in these passages.
Please consider taking this challenge to read... BW

A suggestion has been made that we update our prayer list in a way that keeps it as current as possible. We don't ever want to boot anyone from our prayers, but also we want to intentionally give earnest and specific prayer time to those who's needs come to us.

One idea is that we start fresh at the first of every month. Another is that we start fresh every quarter. No limit to how many times a person can be added back.

This is just an idea... It will be discussed more in the Worship Committee. Please tell us what you think? You can give your feedback to the Pastor or any of the Members of the Worship Committee of HIUMC. Thank you for your faithful, specific and intentional prayers!

Taking the Initiative Against Drudgery Oswald Chambers

When it comes to taking the initiative against drudgery, we have to take the first step as though there were no God. There is no point in waiting for God to help us— He will not. But once we arise, immediately we find He is there.

Whenever God gives us His inspiration, suddenly taking the initiative becomes a moral issue— a matter of obedience. Then we must act to be obedient and not continue to lie down doing nothing. If we will arise and shine, drudgery will be divinely transformed.

Drudgery is one of the finest tests to determine the genuineness of our character. Drudgery is work that is far removed from anything we think of as ideal work. It is the utterly hard, menial, tiresome, and dirty work. And when we experience it, our spirituality is instantly tested and we will know whether or not we are spiritually genuine.

Read John 13. In this chapter, we see the Incarnate God performing the greatest example of drudgery— washing fishermen's feet. He then says to them, "If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet" (John 13:14). The inspiration of God is required if drudgery is to shine with the light of God upon it. In some cases the way a person does a task makes that work sanctified and holy forever. It may be a very common everyday task, but after we have seen it done, it becomes different. When the Lord does something through us, He always transforms it. Our Lord takes our human flesh and transforms it, and now every believer's body has become "the temple of the Holy Spirit" (1 Corinthians 6:19).

WISDOM FROM OSWALD CHAMBERS

It is impossible to read too much, but always keep before you why you read. Remember that "the need to receive, recognize, and rely on the Holy Spirit" is before all else.
