There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends.

John 15:13

Do not cast me off in the time of old age; do not forsake me when my strength fails. Psalm 71:9

It has been said that the most terrible poverty is loneliness and the feeling of being unloved. One of the saddest things is a person near the end of life, who has no one to love them.

We at Snug Harbor do love our residents. While many of our residents have supportive family and friends who visit them often, there are many others who either have no family, an uninvolved family, or family who live too far to visit them regularly. Individual volunteers who visit can make a huge difference in a resident's life.

We are calling for good folks who are willing to spend some one-on-one time with our residents. That special time may be spent in many different ways. Some possibilities are: reading to them, polishing their nails, joining them in scheduled activities, having a meal with them, just sitting and talking with them, singing with them, and remembering them on their birthday or special occasions. If you wish to be a blessing to an elderly person, and in turn receive a blessing, then we welcome you to join our family as a Snug Harbor volunteer.

We ask for a commitment of at least one hour each week. Anyone who is willing to volunteer just a small portion of your time, please contact: Snug Harbor on Nelson Bay, Stephanie Jarvis, Director of Social Services, 252-225-4411 Ext 232
