Even as HE chose us in HIM before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before HIM. In love HE predestined us for adoption as sons through JESUS CHRIST, according to the purpose of HIS will. Ephesians 1:4-5

The steps of a man are established by the LORD, when HE delights in his way. Psalms 37:23

Sunday Morning Devotional

While watching TV and channel surfing recently, I found one of our all time favorite movies, Forrest Gump, was being replayed and I decided to watch it again. The movie got me to thinking about how, what seems to be small coincidences, can change the course of our lives. If you are big fan of the movie like we are, then you know what I mean.

Think of the feather scenes at the beginning and end of the movie. It represents our lives and where we go. The feather is bound by the laws of physics, so one can argue that it is predestined for a certain location. But even the smallest shifts in wind can affect the movement of the feather through the sky, and where it ultimately ends up. Our lives have a path, but they are also vulnerable to "chance".

There is a powerful / insightful quote in the movie by Forrest, where he says:

"Jenny, I don't know if Momma was right or if, if it's Lieutenant Dan. I don't know if we each have a destiny, or if we're all just floating around accident-like on a breeze, but I, I think maybe it's both. Maybe both is happening at the same time."

I think Forrest got it right. GOD is clearly in control, as noted in the Bible verses above, and puts our lives in motion like the wind, but HE allows us free will to make good or bad decisions, that changes our paths back to him constantly. My prayer is that you look to the Lord and pick the path that leads to a life of happiness and eternal life with HIM.
